

Any source of information that enables us to live more fully and comfortably in our communities should not be silenced. Specifically, traffic information from any source is welcome and needed. XM traffic and weather information have been more focused and offered more frequently than my traditional FM source. It is critical that we give our citizenry more information and choice, not less!